Plaintiff.

v.

RGS FINANCIAL, INC., A TEXAS CORPORATION; AND JOHN AND JANE DOES NUMBERS 1 THROUGH 25, Defendants.

JOINT MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

NOW COMES, jointly, all parties to this action and moves the Court, to extend the time to submit the supplemental joint status report and discovery plan in this matter for sixty (60) days for the following reasons:

- Both parties have conducted extensive investigation and review of each parties initial disclosures.
- 2. After said investigation and review, counsel for the parties conducted a conference call on November 19, 2010 to review and discuss the documents and materials submitted in initial disclosures, status of the case and the potential for settlement.
- 3. As a result of that aforementioned conference both parties agreed that this matter may be ripe for settlement and that it would be prudent at this juncture to entertain settlement negotiations prior to conducting extensive oral and written discovery.
- 4. That the parties agreed that any supplemental discovery would be both time and cost intensive and that an attempt to focus on a settlement would be the most effective use of the parties' time and attention at this juncture in the litigation.

WHEREFORE, the parties prays the Court that it grant an extension of sixty (60) days within which to file the supplemental joint status report and discovery plan.

THIS THE 6TH DAY OF DECEMBER, 2010.
